WAYNE E. POMFREY

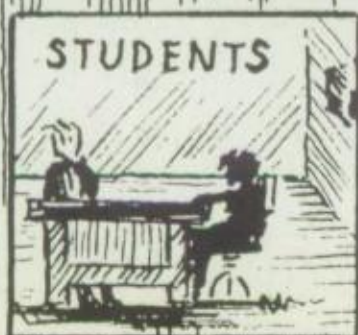

To Wayne E. Pomfrey, former instructor of journalism at Harvey High School and adviser of student publications, the staff dedicates this 1937 edition of the Anvil. Mr. Pomfrey demonstrated unbounded enthusiasm and energy in his work here and the successes attained by both student publications may, in large part, be attributed to his efforts. His interest in the students themselves and the faithful service he performed in the name of the school made him an outstanding member of the faculty. The staff joins in wishing him even greater success in his new teaching position at Harrison, N. Y.

The Class of 1939

The 20th Century Wampus actors and actresses came into our midst on September 7, 1936 when they entered Harvey High school. The infants had graduated from the state called "Babyhood" and advanced to the most important stage of their life. They were lead by Director-President George Hobbs and his assistant Vice President Lightner with Secretary Horvath keeping record of their progress both scholastically and socially. Since that day the cooperation and good sportsmanship they have shown is worthy of praise and to be complimented.

"A Murder Has Been Arranged"

Layton Pollock, director

A cast of nine characters, members of the Le Masque club, presented Emlyn William's play, "A Murder Has Been Arranged" at Champion Junior high on February 24. Layton Pollock, new sponsor of the Le Masque club, directed the play.

Success—the result of five hard weeks of practice, was the reward. The play will long be remembered for the thrills and creeps it gave to its audience.

Dramatics

Three outstanding one act plays were presented this year by the public speaking classes.

"The Happy Journey", a play emphasizing pantomime, was the first of these one acts. The cast included Patricia Slabaugh as Ma Kirby; Steve Popp as Pa Kirby; Antionette Gullo as Caroline; Tom Lightner as Arthur; and Eleanor Bihary as Beulah, the married daughter. Walter Wyant, as the property manager, played various roles.

The second play, "Sky Fodder" was an impressive production. Paul Carney, Robert Stevens, and Brewster Elledge played the roles of three men whose plane had crashed in the jungle. The setting and the lighting effects were appropriate backgrounds for the unusual play.

"On the Lot", with Bettie Kerr and Jack Pritchard in the leading roles, was the last one act for the year. James Hobbs, as the prop man, completed the cast.

Virginia Mace presented a dramatic reading, "Ile", in this assembly. "Opening the Mission Box", a humorous reading, was given by Julia Truby. These two students and Paul Carney, who gave his oration, "We Who Are About to Die", earlier in the year, competed in a speech tournament in Niles, Ohio. They returned with six first, two seconds, and a third, a remarkable record for so small a representation.

CHAMPIONSHIPS

Let's Go Harvey!

FOOTBALL . . .

Starting the 1936 football season with a new all-American coach, Harvey High's "Red Raiders" proved to be a veritable power-house, sweeping nearly everything before them to tie for the Lake Shore League championship with Fairport.

In all fairness it must be said, however, that the hardy Hardingites from Fairport were more than a match for Coach Paul Moss' husky eleven. Once the Raiders fell before the attack of the "Skippers" in the league game and again in the annual exhibition "Turkey Day" feud battle, they could come off the field with nothing more than a scoreless tie.

Coach Moss, because of his great reputation and wide range of experience, immediately became popular with the members of the squad. Although a few balked at his stern way of disciplining them, one by one they all fell in line and were able to comprise a formidable array of gridiron gladiators.

Mr. Moss was one of Purdue's great football stars. For two years he was named an all-American end and after graduation played professional football with the Pittsburgh team. He came here from St. Louis where he was teaching high school.

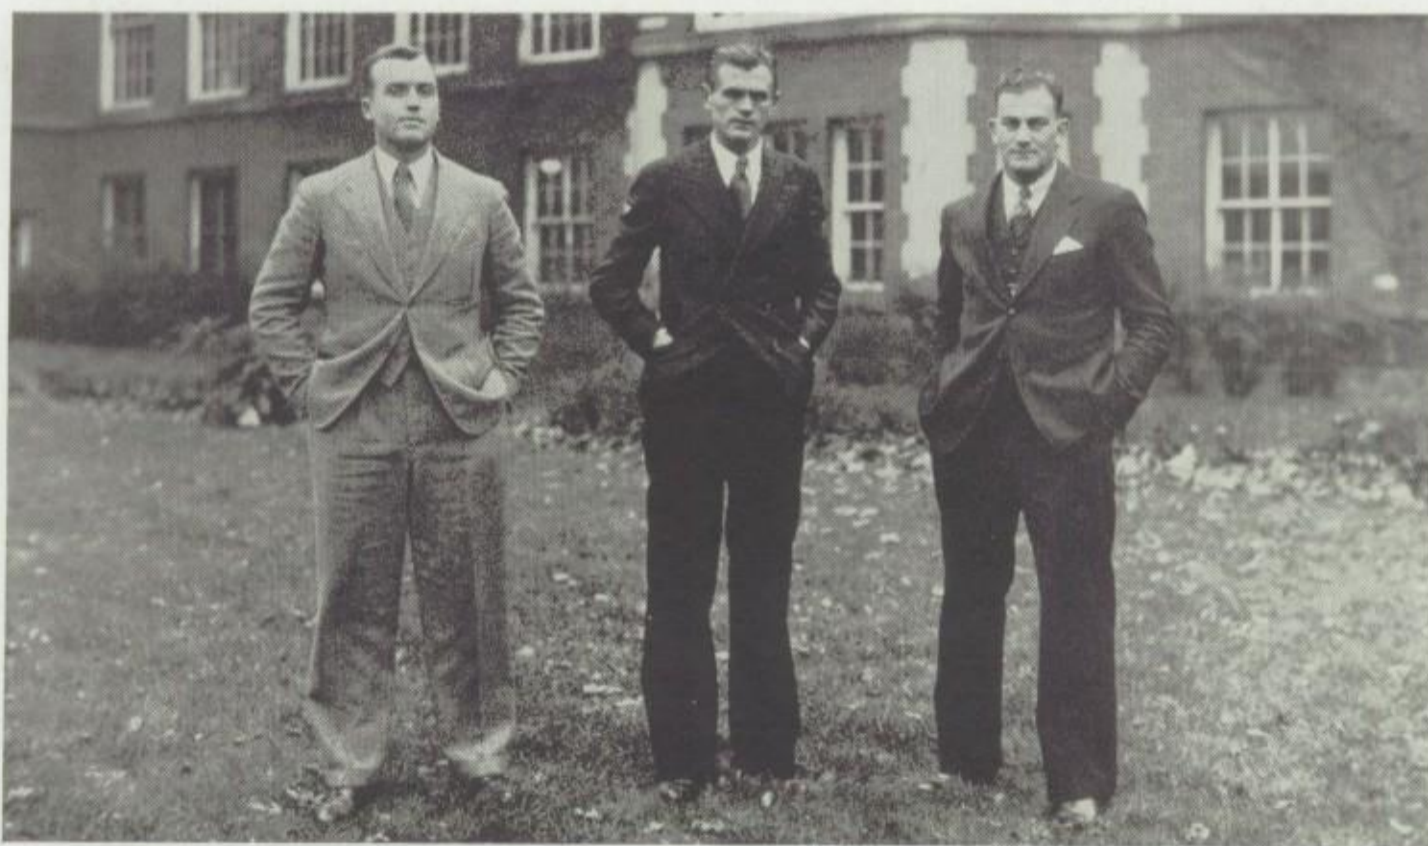

As capable assistants Coach Moss had Athletic Director Roy George and Robert Dickey, both very popular with the players.

The Football Season

HARVEY 25—MADISON 0

Harvey started its season by thoroughly trouncing Madison. The new grid mentor, Paul Moss, showed none of his tricks but won the game on straight football.

HARVEY 39—WICKLIFFE 6

The "Raiders" again played good ball, showing only a few of their tricks in beating their small town neighbor. Wickliffe's only tally came in the early part of the fourth quarter.

HARVEY 7—ASHTABULA HBR. 6

Harvey held the upper hand in the first league game although it was won by only one point. Luthanen plowed over the line for the lone tally in the third quarter.

LINCOLN 13—HARVEY 6

Fighting against a heavier team, Harvey repeatedly outfought the Lincolmites but finally lost to them in the last two minutes. The "Raiders" completely outpointed their larger rivals.

Coach Moss
in action

HARVEY 25—GENEVA 0

Despite a heavy rain, Harvey scored touchdowns in every quarter in a very uneven contest against Geneva. Being unable to use the air, the "Raiders" used brawn and chopped the opposing line to pieces.

HARVEY 6—ASHTABULA 6

Playing very ragged ball, the "Raiders" barely escaped getting beaten by a weaker Ashtabula team. Harvey's team had several good chances to score but the breaks were against it.

HARVEY 6—CONNEAUT 6

Giving its first poor showing of the year, Harvey was completely outplayed and only fate kept it from losing to the "Trojans." The "Raiders" didn't use any deceptive plays and were decidedly outpointed. The "Trojans" scored in the first quarter.

HARVEY 13—WILLOUGHBY 0

The "Raiders" again looked like pennant winners instead of a second rate team like they had against their last two opponents. They experienced very little trouble in scoring against a strong Willoughby team.

FAIRPORT 18—HARVEY 12

After playing one of the best games of the season, Harvey was finally nosed out by the "Skippers." Both teams played superb ball and it was just the breaks that counted Harvey out. Harvey fought all the way and wasn't licked until the last play was pulled.

HARVEY 2—ALUMNI 0

Playing their old team mates, the "Raiders" had a hard time beating them. By scoring a touchback the regulars succeeded in nosing the veterans at the last moment.

HARVEY 0—FAIRPORT 0

The annual "Turkey Day" game was the best contest that Harvey played during the year. Both teams played faultless ball to prove that they should be co-champions.

Basketball . . .

The Harvey basketeers started this season with all but one regular player back. Paced by Russell Lynch and Clarence Kelsey, the boys soon developed into a powerful offensive combination.

The Raiders, under the capable tutelage of Coach Roy 'Wizzard' George, won seven straight games before their initial meeting with Fairport. They had lost only one game and that was to a strong Collinwood team in the first game of the year by a score of 22-20.

The play in the Fairport game was so fast and furious that the game had to be stopped several times. The final score was 32-24 in favor of Fairport.

Harvey met Ashtabula in the next game and after some thrilling moments finally won a 30-27 victory over the Panthers. The six games that followed the Raiders won by large margins and were in very little danger any of the time.

In their second game with Fairport, the Raiders were playing for the Lake Shore League championship and Fairport was playing for a tie. Harvey took an early lead and was determined to beat the Skippers no matter what happened. The game was very close as the half ended with Fairport holding a small lead. The second half showed the superior team as the Raiders forged ahead and stayed there. The final score was 41-25.

The Raiders suffered a let down after they had won the championship and lost to Ashtabula in a very fast, close game by the score of 27-33.

The Harvey fans had great hopes for the Raiders as they went into the tournament. Their hopes were shattered when they were beaten by a scrappy and strong Ashtabula team by the score of 24-18.

Wrestling . . .

Harvey High's wrestlers were pushed into the lime-light of sports when they succeeded in getting wrestling made a major sport. They started the season without a coach as Coach William Broz transferred to Canton.

John Gaeth, a new teacher at Champion Junior High school, finally agreed to take the job. He whipped the team into good shape in short order and succeeded in arranging a tough schedule with only three home contests.

The team was beaten by a squad of "toughies" from John Hay High school in Cleveland and of two meets with the Cleveland Y. M. C. A. one was won by the Raider Grunters. Matches were engaged in with Western Re-

Track . . .

The Harvey High track team, at Anvil press time, had high hopes of winning the league meets and making it a clean sweep in all major sports this year.

The team looked exceptionally good for it included some very good prospects in the field events who have developed since last season.

Bolden appeared a certain winner in heaving the shot-put and throwing the discus. Nelson seemed to have a good chance to win some of the pole-vaulting honors. The relay aspirants were just about the same as last year and were expected to place well up in the meets. Individual places in running were well represented and Coach George expected little trouble in these events.

Coach George and his assistant, Coach Moss, believed that it was about time for Harvey to have a few track trophies and started out with that objective in mind.

This is a large, dense collage of black and white photographs, likely from a 1940s yearbook. The images are arranged in a grid-like fashion, though some overlap. The photos depict various scenes of student life: groups of friends posing outdoors, students in athletic gear during sports like basketball and track, individuals in formal or semi-formal attire, and candid shots of students walking or sitting. Notable elements include a large group of students in coats, a basketball game in progress, a student on a bicycle, and a sign that reads "NO PARKING BUSSTOP". The overall tone is nostalgic and captures the essence of mid-20th-century school culture.

Nineteen students, members of the National Honor Society, took the Senior Scholarship test on Saturday, April 3. Of these, nine Harvey participants placed in the upper seventeen contestants. John Joughin placed first with Bert Ingley and Jean Carroll, second and third respectively. The other students who received high places were: David Cooper, Joe Lorincz, Sylvia Marsch, Phyllis Duffey, Burdette Wilkinson and Scott Slocum. These tests are held each year to determine the rank of the schools. The high ranking seniors often receive scholarships.

FALL HOMECOMING

Lois Davis was elected by the students to reign as queen at the Homecoming dance which was held November 27. She was attended by Josephine Kallay, Virginia Mace, and Evelyn Nelson.

The fourth annual Homecoming was one of the colorful scenes of the year. Many of the alumni actors of Harvey High returned to their former lot for the occasion.

Epitaphs

Here lies Curley McBride
For him life held no terrors
A gentleman born, a gentleman died,
No hits, no runs, no errors.

Here lies Carmelia Square
Whose heart no man could hold on
Who never did a wicked thing
Nor ever enjoyed a good one.

Here rests the body of Carney
For him life held many pleasures
The light of his eye, was a tiny blond
The most treasured of all his treasures.

Here lies Madame Chalfin,
Who died with a pain in her tum
One day she choked, and down her throat
Slid the son-of-a-gum.

Here rests a man, with a heart of gold
Who believed in decent hours
His heart though gold, was mighty cold
And his name was Francis Powers

Wesley Tucker lies quite dead
For him life was sad tis said
His manner gentle, his voice sweet
Could not this cruel life defeat.

Epitaphs

The lovely Miss, who lies here, is Doris
A beautiful girl to be seen—
She would be alive today, so they tell me
If it weren't for that Column in her teens.

The man who lies in this grave
We will always remember the more
Because even though wealthy and brave
The WOLF was never chased from his door.

Jo Kallay was a dainty Miss
Tis a shame she had to die like this
But some one stole her heart
And from this life she had to part.

Here lies Lois, our Queen
Who countless hearts enraptured
But many tried and many failed
Before her hand was captured.

Bob Stevens rests in this plot of late
Never more will his heart be a whirl
For they've covered his love with a new
V-8
His beautiful Poster Girl.

In this spot lies Heinbaugh
The likes again you'll never see
He wouldn't admit he liked a girl, but—
"Can I help it if she loves me?"

Personality Contest

One of the big events to be remembered by all students this year was the Hook-Up Contest, sponsored by Virginia "Ginny" Mace through her column in the Har-Binger in March.

The contest, based entirely on popularity, brought into the lime-light 13 well-known students. The entire school voted, everyone having the privilege of voting for any boy or girl whom he or she thought best fitted the title.

Results were as follows:

1. Most Athletic GirlArloa Jolliffe
2. Most Athletic BoyBert Ingley
3. Personality BoyCharles McBride
